they, instead of standing up like men of good government in the school the popular tumults and proceed to the reign of their authority, and they go government, the school should be carry a revolution home and pretty the regards and confidence of is the duty of parents to educate their duty, the original provision for the dis-of this obligation in the domestic circle school reasons parents delegate this work the schools, and at the same time they every right of government, includthe school. The parent is bound by disciplinary right to insist on punctuand regularity of attendance, and that as parents would be authorized to ex-did the performance of this educational the domestic circle, and so much authority as the increased number of school children a state teacher has of a family.
 The delegation of this authority is final; parent has no right to interfere with this provision is absolute in its exercise in its protection, yet responsible as is the parent needed for the school. The parent is the school. The parent is bound to the child, and he cannot be excused he also cannot the obligation to instruct; he has no moral right to do either, unless is an habitual abuse of the one—not the best. For such will happen the best government is a failure to substitute a teacher and to some other of better instruction and better govern-and this substitution shall more than penate for the evil which the withdrawal change of school will do the school the pupil by encouraging his fundamen-and strengthening the habit of in-
 interference with proper school government stands upon the family who interfere with the qualification. I have said, does a great wrong not only to the and consequently, but to his own government and his child. Although it the child a large number of corporal punishments inflicted by teachers be avoided by a better government or by some other means, yet the teacher, as out, parents who generally find it duty, at times, to resort to the mode of the child. The parent is bound to should not be surprised at his own infiction in a school of seventy pupils this delicate subject of school govern-and the necessity of corporal punish-in connection therewith, the decision points, etc., is one of such large dimenthe child, the teacher, the parent, and consideration and will discuss it with that all will be cautious here they have to breaking down instead of saving school government, and with the fact that all well founded complaints in connection will receive courteous attention.
 The pupils of the High School and the departments permit me to say, that have much to do in determining the the character of the school, and the
 and the improvement of your class in school. You have good advantages. give and have given up great benefit the course of acquiring your education.
 Will you not improve these means?
 I urge you to be ambitious to com-the school, and to seek for the honors of Graduaand only the mere honors further the school. You have a great many the work in the cultivation of your inand in the preparation of yourselves
 the school. You have a great many with the physical examinations—with care to pass the examinations—but seek your mental work.

Maximilian Shot.

French-Austrian pro-Robel assassin in Mexico has finally come to it. Maximilian, the head of the rebel army, and the tool of the emperor, was shot on the 19th of June, after his condemnation by a martial court. A courier received the dispatches of the United States and so far as we are concerned was willing to spare Maximilian, but the pressure of the war was so great that he found it unable to resist it. He also refused to give the corpse to the captain Austrian vessel who desired to take it to Europe.

The office of the Austrian Minister in Washington is draped in mourning. The event produces a profound on in this country, and will a profound sensation in the world.

Maximilian was a man of many and attainments; a scholar, a brave and the last member in respect of the House of Hapsburg, impossible not to feel regret for as a man, and it is plain that his violent death was neither nor unexpected it was not unnecessary.

City of Mexico surrendered to the rebels on the 20th, and Vera Cruz soon followed.

"Empire" which has thus been established in the interest of the Southern Rebellion, and destruction is a matter of congratulation to the loyal people of the States.

Bond Holders.

Holder of Seven-Thirty Bonds remember that they are convertible into Five-Twenty gold-bearing maturity and not otherwise. Secretary of the Treasury, by giving that conversion may be effected. Secretary has taken away from them the right of claiming a conversion into notes.

The premium on Seven-Thirties, now being in fact, is due to the fact that the convertible into gold-bearing maturity, and after August 1st will be worth only their face.

Holder of Seven-Thirty bonds of August series should at once call them in and secure the premium or take them to their bankers and have them converted into Five-Bonds.

Galloway's Declaration.

Galloway has definitely declined to accept as Lieutenant Governor, in the letter of declaration is in the name of Gen. Cowan, Chairman of the State Executive Committee; it is published to-morrow. The Central Committee has been called on the 10th inst., to designate a successor.

The War Department has sent the reply to Gen. Schofield's request. "You," telegram making received from the command of the Military District, and demanding of inquiry, was submitted by Secretary of War, yesterday, to the effect of the United States, that you to retain your command unimpaired. to order the court of in-mandated by you.

Prof. Minister resigned at about recently at his post of duty. For many years a leading teacher in Berlin College, and requiring of physical employment, has been compelled for some years past to his labors in teaching. His prominent part in raising troops in France, and was appointed to his post by Mr. Lincoln. His resignation was in Illinois.

A Washington dispatch last evening that thirty members of both of Congress arrived in Washington. The officers employed in the express their confidences, found letters and verbal communications received, that a quorum of both will answer roll-call on Wednesday. No Presidential message or report will be submitted to Congress.

It is reported at Fort Harker that General Custer with a small cavalry, had been defeated by the forces of Indians and the general report is not well authenticated. Some credence is placed in it, but so little having been the command for some time.

A mystery in regard to Boon's disappearance seems to be cleared up. A witness in the SURETY that he saw the Diary on the other shore's death and it was then in condition as now.

Washington County Union Convention will be held in Coshocton on July 1st. In connection therewith a meeting will be held, which will be addressed by MARION CHANCE, of Fremont.
